Introduction

What happens when you surrender entirely to the will of God?

A surrender that goes beyond the born again experience of being saved into His Glorious Kingdom which is the free gift of God.

Ephesians 2:8-9

For by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God, not of works, lest anyone should boast.

The absolute surrender.

The kind that demands you pay a high price to stand in the gap for others.

Ezekiel 22:30

So I sought for a man among them who would make a wall, and stand in the gap before Me on behalf of the land, that I should not destroy it; but I found no one.

Where the Lord mobilizes you into a greater calling in His Church, to take enemy territory and join the stampede in charging toward the battle lines of principalities & powers who oppose the revelation of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Ephesians 6:12

For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this age, against spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places.

This book chronicles the life of a completely surrendered life. My life.

It cost me everything to enter the higher calling in Christ Jesus and much more than I could possibly fathom.

In this book I share my testimony of being called to be a prophet of the Lord who witnessed the miraculous working power of God in signs & wonders including:

- Prophesying a word of a great revival to Guatemala & ministering on the streets of towns that were destroyed three months later by the catastrophic June 2018 Volcano Fuego eruption.
- Raising to life of a dead girl in Central America & multiple miracle healings.
- The almost unbearable burden of carrying the prophetic word of coming judgements of the nations & many other prophecies.

- A visitation from the Lord Jesus Christ in my bedroom to speak a word to me for the nation of Australia.

Do not replace this book or any other book for the Scriptures of the Holy Bible. The Bible must not be neglected but read daily with guidance from the Holy Spirit.

John 16:13

However, when He, the Spirit of truth, has come, He will guide you into all truth; for He will not speak on His own authority, but whatever He hears He will speak; and He will tell you things to come.

Do not be deceived into believing contrary doctrines, but imitate those who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

2 Timothy 3:16

All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness.

2 John 10

If anyone comes to you and does not bring this doctrine, do not receive him into your house nor greet him.

Hebrews 6:12

Imitate those who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

Saints in Christ Jesus possess the fruits of the Spirit. Keep company with such and avoid brethren in Christ who seek earthly riches & the praise of men. Do not be unequally yoked with non-believers of Christ.

Galatians 5:22-23

But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control. Against such there is no law.

2 Corinthians 6:14

Do not be unequally yoked together with unbelievers.

Test all things in prayer and fasting; including this book.

1 John 4:1

Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits, whether they are of God; because many false prophets have gone out into the world.

Galatians 1:8

But even if we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel to you than what we have preached to you, let him be accursed.

I will conclude this introduction with a word the Lord spoke to me while struggling with His command to forsake all and enter into the higher calling in Christ Jesus.

“Peter, My son. It's not about you anymore. You are always with Me. I love you and you love Me and this matter is settled between you & I.

My House is your House and the challenges contained within have become your burden. There is a lost generation in great need. Go!”

[John 21:15-18]

It simply was not possible for me to refuse the God who suffered on a Cross to save me out of a life of darkness & misery. I responded;

“Here am I! Send me.”

[Isaiah 6:8]

Purpose of Book

For the Record: Amos 3:6-7

If a trumpet is blown in a city, will not the people be afraid? If there is calamity in a city, will not the Lord have done it? Surely the Lord God does nothing, Unless He reveals His secret to His servants the prophets.

For the Apostates: 2 Kings 13:18-19

Then he said, "Take the arrows"; so he took them. And he said to the king of Israel, "Strike the ground"; so he struck three times, and stopped. And the man of God was angry with him, and said, "You should have struck five or six times; then you would have struck Syria till you had destroyed it! But now you will strike Syria only three times."

For the Dead Church: Judges 19:29-30

When he entered his house he took a knife, laid hold of his concubine, and divided her into twelve pieces, limb by limb, and sent her throughout all the territory of Israel. And so it was that all who saw it said, "No such deed has been done or seen from the day that the children of Israel came up from the land of Egypt until this day. Consider it, confer, and speak up!

For the Sojourners of this Age: Psalm 32:6

For this cause everyone who is godly shall pray to You In a time when You may be found; Surely in a flood of great waters They shall not come near him.

Death of a Seed

John 12:24

Most assuredly, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the ground and dies, it remains alone; but if it dies, it produces much grain.

I was born again in 1996 and after completing Bible college in 2000 I received a personal prophecy from a well known Australian prophet which shook the gathering with thundering. The prophecy spoke of a high price the Lord was requesting I pay, where affliction and suffering would abound in my life. To pay the high price, for the purpose of leading a future generation who had become so enraptured in an age of self-centeredness, they were at risk of being utterly destroyed in sin and weakness.

I accepted the prophetic word into my heart and announced to the Lord to let His will be done according to His word.

Luke 1:38

Then Mary said, "Behold the maidservant of the Lord! Let it be to me according to your word." And the angel departed from her.

You may have prayed a similar prayer at some time in your life in response to His spirit beckoning for you to go deeper with Him. If this is the case, I hope this book provides you with some comfort in knowing your trials were not endured in vain, and were permitted by the Lord to bring you into a greater strength and maturity in your faith.

2 Corinthians 1:3-4

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort those who are in any trouble, with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God.

Having endured many years of countless trials in the wilderness, it was evident the prophet spoke accurately concerning my life path in the Lord. During the years of severe testing, I would encourage myself in the Lord knowing He was with me despite the adversities I encountered. I would often consider the testimony of Joseph in the Bible and how the word tested him for a time. We are all familiar with Joseph's story of how he was forced into a pit of complete hopelessness, and was later raised in due season to save a generation. I persevered for many years, however I eventually gave up and gave in to the pervasive over-indulgence culture polluting Australia.

In 2017, I experienced what I perceived to be an emotional breakdown. I abruptly resigned from my job and there was no motivation or direction on what to do next. I argued with the Lord, charging Him with cruelty and being unjust for all the adversities I had encountered over many years.

I was housebound in my apartment near the harbour of Sydney City in a state of severe depression. Deep in my heart, I knew my walk with the Lord was not right but I chose to remain in deception to keep God at a distance. I later discovered the Lord had lifted all grace over me in that situation and had intervened to cause everything to fall apart around me. God was calling me to reconcile with Him and in time, enter the ministry.

I wept constantly in the first week and was in a dark pit of despair. I accused the Lord of intentionally stacking life against me. This did not last long as I quickly exhausted myself in my rebellion and lost all energy to fight. I began repenting and sought His face in complete humility.

Jonah 2:4

Then I said, 'I have been cast out of Your sight; Yet I will look again toward Your holy temple.'

Immediately the Lord spoke to me;

“Peter, let me love you!”

James 4:8

Draw near to God and He will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners; and purify your hearts, you double-minded.

The Lord was requesting I allow Him to discipline me, to correct me of my rebellion and set me free to worship Him. To obey Him.

Hebrews 12:6

Whom the Lord loves He chastens, and scourges every son whom He receives.

Let us be honest. Nobody enjoys discipline, particularly me. It is dreadfully humbling and painful yet we all must experience it as nobody is exempt; unless you are disqualified from the faith.

Hebrews 12:11

Now no chastening seems to be joyful for the present, but painful; nevertheless, afterward it yields the peaceable fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it.

Believe me when I say that I have been chastised more than most to fulfill my calling and it was not always because I had transgressed. The Lord permitted it in order to condition and train me while leading me deeper into the ministry work to carry heavier burdens. There is a difference between the chastening one experiences who sits at ease in their salvation, to the one who voluntarily accepts a burden from the Lord.

I now found myself in the Potters House, prostrate on the pottery wheel, and the Potters Hands were maneuvering according to His will.

Ramblings of a Madman

2 Corinthians 11:23

Are they ministers of Christ? - I speak as a madman - I am more: in labours more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequently, in deaths often.

What have I sown into the Kingdom?

I have suffered the loss of all things for the sake of the Kingdom including:

- An eviction from my apartment, all my possessions [throwing most away] and all my savings including retirement reserves.
- My professional career & any means of income support.
- The custody of my beloved son whom I previously had sole custody and have not seen or spoken to for years by court order.
- My reputation amongst many who believe I am mentally unbalanced and a downright fool for throwing my life away and damaging relationships in the process.

- I have been stranded in my car, which occasionally broke down, in the most remote parts of Australia with no money, fuel or food; many times, for days at a time, even weeks.
- Published and reported as a missing person, with all media outlets reporting the event and the Australian Federal Police searching vigorously for me nationwide while on mission for the Lord throughout Australia.
- Fed to the wolves on social media with thousands of people accusing me of being crazy and an irresponsible father.
- Mocked and slandered in the courts and arrested by the police twice. I was locked away for days in a holding cell [jail] with my hands secured by hand cuffs. I ministered to receptive inmates with my Bible clutched in my hands, while being threatened by hostile inmates.
- Traveled to Guatemala Central America and became stranded with no emotional or financial support having run out of money, and threats of violence and death.
- Mistreated and dismissed by brothers & sisters in Christ who refused to acknowledge my chains in Christ and the great urgency to listen to my remarkable testimony for their own benefit.

What have I witnessed in fulfilling this higher calling in Christ Jesus?

The mighty working power of God in signs & wonders and more than I can fit into a book.

As the Lord begins to pass the mantle to me, there is a generation of thousands upon thousands who will respond to a call to repentance in many nations.

Why then have you not heard of me and where is my affiliation or credentials to speak with any authority? They are hidden in Christ Jesus.

Has not the Lord worked in this manner from the beginning? To take a surrendered soul and test them against His word in the secret place, where faith is refined as gold in a furnace of affliction, and released in due season according to His will.

Psalm 105:17-22

*The Lord sent a man before them Joseph, who was sold as a slave.
They hurt his feet with fetters, He was laid in irons. Until the time that his word came to pass, The word of the Lord tested him. The king sent and released him, The ruler of the people let him go free.
He made him lord of his house, And ruler of all his possessions, To bind his princes at his pleasure, And teach his elders wisdom.*

You may also ask: Does this man think he is a modern day Apostle? I am not, although what would a modern day Apostle look like? These are not the questions to ask. The right question to ask is: What does a modern day Pharisee look like?

Brethren in Christ, there is no faith in hindsight. We cannot always wait for evidence [signs] to act in obedience. The Lord does not wait for man to execute His will, but rather commands we obey His word and the beckoning of His Spirit.

Hebrews 11:6

But without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he who comes to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him.

Matthew 3:9

Do not think to say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father.' For I say to you that God is able to raise up children to Abraham from these stones.

I am merely His vessel and pen, and the occasional madman - according to mans understanding.

The Lord Jesus Christ is the author and finisher of my faith, to whom is due all praise & honour.

A Dead Girl, Volcano & Nation Come to Life

Ezekiel 37:1-3

The hand of the Lord came upon me and brought me out in the Spirit of the Lord, and set me down in the midst of the valley; and it was full of bones. Then He caused me to pass by them all around, and behold, there were very many in the open valley; and indeed they were very dry. And He said to me, “Son of man, can these bones live?”

So I answered, “O Lord God, You know.”

It was an evening in November 2017. I was in Darwin Australia having just completed a mission trip to an Aboriginal church [Indigenous Australians] located at Weipa in Cape York. I was extremely weary at this stage having traveled 30,000 kilometers [19,000 miles] by car over a 3 month period throughout Australia, visiting church leaders as the Lord directed by divine appointment, and had endured most of the trials mentioned in the previous chapter.

The Australia mission is intentionally covered in a later chapter.

I sensed in my spirit that my mission in Australia was completed at that time, and the Lord directed me to silence and humble myself before His face to seek my next instruction.

I prayed to the Lord;

“Where to next Lord?”

He showed me a vision of a building that was terracotta in colour and I knew the Lord was revealing something to me, if I was interested, I asked;

“What is it Lord?”

He spoke the following word as though I had also seen it on a banner in the spirit;

“Guatemala”

“Lord, I do not know where Guatemala is located. I will need to look it up on a map.” I answered.

I hastened to look up Guatemala on Google maps and upon discovering it was located in Central America, I thought to myself;

“Oh no! Here I go again!”

I committed to the Lord;

“If I have enough money to buy a one-way flight ticket, I’ll go.”

I checked the flight prices and only had enough money to buy a one-way ticket leaving me with little spending money.

I booked the flight and boarded a plane to Guatemala two days later to seek out another adventure into the unknown. Not a single soul knew of my whereabouts nor that I was now flying to Central America. Only the Lord and I.

I arrived in Guatemala (after a stop-over in Dallas in the United States) and was informed by a resident that entry into Guatemala without a return flight is not permitted as they usually prevent you from boarding the plane at Dallas. I accepted this miracle as confirmation I was in the perfect will of God.

I stayed in the city of Guatemala for the first week and the Lord began speaking to me about His plans for the nation.

“Peter, what do you see?”

“I see a great revival!” I replied.

“You have seen well, for I am ready to perform my Word!” said the Lord.

Over the following two months I traveled throughout Guatemala sharing the Gospel with non-believers, praying for the sick, and proclaiming the prophetic word of a great revival for Guatemala. I witnessed miracle healings and led people to Christ so there was an abundance of fruit.

I share and unpack one of the miracle healings later in this book in the chapter 'Understanding Faith in Miracle Healings'. I selected that particular miracle healing event because I believe the Lord desires we learn and understand that miracle healings go beyond what we witness in the natural. There is a limitation in how we observe and understand certain situations and how they relate to Gods will.

Many Christians fail to witness the power of miracle healings when they pray because they simply do not ask God what His will is in the matter, before or during the prayer appointment. God is not merely a power source like the sun to be tapped into. God is a Spiritual being with an intelligence that has frightened me at times and left me in wonderment. God knows the outcome before the beginning so why would we leave Him out of the decision making process? It is His authority that we exercise in His name.

Matthew 5:36

Nor shall you swear by your head, because you cannot make one hair white or black.

John 4:24

God is Spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth.

Faith is not stepping ahead of God, it is following His counsel.

John 10:27

My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me.

Beware of so called 'Name It & Claim It' and 'Wealth Prosperity' faith teachings which is outright blasphemy.

Job 40:14

Then I will also confess to you, that your own right hand can save you.

Hopefully I have given you an appetite for miracles and are now looking forward with anticipation to the chapter on 'Understanding Faith in Miracle Healings' but let us get back to the Guatemala mission...

The Lord introduced me to a number of Christians along the way of which some were church leaders. I shared with them the prophecy of the coming revival and urged them to seek out the Lord on the matter. I gave personal prophecies which had specific instructions and some had words of knowledge to provide the hearer with assurance it was the Lord speaking. My testimony of how I traveled to Guatemala was also an encouragement.

After approximately two months of traveling and ministering my finances dried up, much like Elijah's brook [1 Kings 17:7].

The remaining funds would cover a further four nights accommodation and then I would be forced onto the streets of Guatemala homeless. Throughout my travels, I always prayed for the Lord to lead me in His perfect will. There was always a purpose for being sent to a particular accommodation as I ministered to people once settled.

I booked accommodation at a Spanish-style hostel for two nights which had an open air garden in the center with a water fountain. As I walked into the building a lady who owned the premises and her son checked me in. I noticed the lady looked very unwell and she revealed to me she was dying of cancer. I told her I was a Christian minister and she requested that I pray for her and that she also was a Christian. I placed my backpack in my room and immediately returned to the lady and her son however she was busy on the phone. I conversed with her son for a while who confessed to formerly being a Christian, however was now pursuing Buddhism.

The lady finished her phone call so the two of us went into her bedroom. The room was very dark due to all the windows having been covered to aid her in resting during the day.

I asked if she believed Jesus Christ could heal her of cancer. She believed and so I prayed. There was a beautiful presence of the Holy Spirit and a spiritual fragrance filled the atmosphere which was evident to everyone. I informed her she was now healed in the name of Jesus and she was to take action on things such as; uncovering the windows to let the light in, exercising by going for walks, and removing any reminder of her infirmity including the cancer drugs. She agreed, and so I departed back to my room.

That evening I went to bed extremely upset and discouraged in the Lord. I have familiarized you with the details of the severe trials I had endured prior to my trip to Guatemala and I could not believe I was being led into another crisis situation of having no money in a strange country where I could not speak the language. I wanted to quit the ministry and return to a life of normality away from the severe trials.

In the middle of the night, I was awoken by the sound of a female wailing in pain. It sounded as though someone had just passed away because it was evident the lady was experiencing tremendous grief. It was loud! It sounded as though the noise was coming from the next room and the lady was on the phone as I could only hear her weeping and nobody else. To be honest, I did not care. I was so consumed with my own troubles I comfortably returned to sleep.

Jonah 1:5

But Jonah had gone down into the lowest parts of the ship, had lain down, and was fast asleep.

The wailing woke me again and had the same intensity as before. This did not bother me. In fact, I was comforted someone was suffering as much as I had.

It is amazing what methods we will resort to in order to comfort ourselves in our rebellion when we are distraught and acting out in the flesh.

I returned to sleep while grumbling to the Lord;

“If this situation has something to do with you Lord, I do not care anymore! Let it go on without me!”

I was awoken again later by the lady's shouting. At this point, I had sense enough to think I should get out of bed and investigate.

I walked toward the entrance of the building which was located on a main street in Guatemala city. The lady owner and her son were standing at the entrance in their night gowns. As I approached, I saw hundreds of people looking toward our hotel entrance which was strange to experience while half asleep. A couple of metres directly outside of our entrance was a mother and daughter sprawled across the footpath and gutter. The mother was cradling her lifeless daughter in her arms and was rocking back and forth wailing in tremendous grief.

The lady and her son looked at me and said;

“She is dead.”

The young woman had fallen off her motorcycle and such deaths are common in Central America due to riders not wearing head protection. It was the second death of this type I had witnessed.

I was extremely tired, unmotivated and not feeling at all Holy in the Lord. I absolutely wanted to be somewhere else and regretted having responded to His call.

Psalm 55:6

So I said, “Oh, that I had wings like a dove! I would fly away and be at rest.

Even though I did not desire to be in that situation at the time, I now look back at the memory with great fondness. These experiences are only available at the extreme end of Christian ministry however it would be very difficult and almost impossible to live in this state permanently. The Lord understands intimately the limitations of the flesh.

2 Corinthians 1:8

For we do not want you to be ignorant, brethren, of our trouble which came to us in Asia: that we were burdened beyond measure, above strength, so that we despaired even of life.

Psalms 27:13

I would have lost heart, unless I had believed That I would see the goodness of the Lord In the land of the living.

I prayed to the Lord for guidance and the Holy Spirit began leading me. I asked the lady to inform the police officer I was a Christian minister and I should pray for the dead girl. The lady looked at me with confusion however remarkably yielded and told the police officer, who also surprisingly agreed and stepped aside. I approached the dead girl with at least three hundred people observing my movements and wondering who I might be.

The mother allowed me to inspect her daughter. All the standard checks confirmed the young lady was dead and based on the circumstances, had been for hours.

I placed my hand on the dead women's forehead and prayed;

“Life return to the girl in the name of Jesus!”

Immediately, the young women's eyes opened and she looked up at me with peace in her eyes. She sat up while attempting to make sense of where she was and why there were so many people surrounding her.

Acts 3:6

“Silver and gold I do not have, but what I do have I give you: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk.”

The events following the raising to life of the dead women can only be described as absolute chaos.

The mother aggressively pushed me away to grab hold of her daughter and the crowds pressed in to see what was happening. After stumbling backward from the mother's shove, I marched forward with determination and grabbed the girl's wrists, telling the mother she must walk it out in faith and attempted to lift the girl to her feet. The mother would not allow me and fought with me to keep a hold of her daughter and pushed me away a second time. The mother was merely in shock and acting out to protect her daughter.

I heard many people shouting and heard all sorts of claims such as;

“What is going on?”

“She must have been drunk!”

“She was dead!”

“Did she faint?”

As I walked back toward the lady and her son, their faces were pure shock and the crowd was rowdy and restless. They gazed at me while attempting to reconcile what they had just witnessed. The son looked at me intently with his face pressed in close to mine, while pointing at the raised to life girl with his hand shaking and said;

“She was dead! She was dead!”

“I know! I know! That is the power of the Lord Jesus Christ!” I responded.

It is remarkable how such an incredible miracle occurred at the hands of a person who was at their lowest point in the Lord. We often believe we must be at our best in the Lord to be most effective however it is not always the case. The Lord always looks at the heart of a person and not how they may be feeling or acting in a moment or season of weakness due to the testings He has permitted.

Psalm 139:23-24

Search me, O God, and know my heart; Try me, and know my anxieties; And see if there is any wicked way in me, And lead me in the way everlasting.

On a number of occasions, the Lord has intentionally manifested His power through my life when I have been at my lowest, for the purpose of reminding me it is His Holiness that delivers the miracle and not mine, lest I should boast before God and men.

Am I making an argument we should pursue weakness through sin so Gods power may be manifested in increasing measure? Absolutely not.

Romans 6:1

What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin that grace may abound?

On the contrary, we are commanded to pursue Holiness, understanding we most certainly will fail at times, but we must not draw-back.

Hebrews 12:14

Pursue peace with all people, and holiness, without which no one will see the Lord.

Psalm 103:14

For He knows our frame; He remembers that we are dust.

I have discovered that on the battle fields of ministry there is a 'fog of war' where unexpected and unwanted events play out and soldiers get bruised and discouraged, but not in the least traumatized. When you walk and fight with the Lord you are only strengthened by the experiences, and healed in the process to become stronger than where you began.

Matthew 21:28-31

But what do you think? A man had two sons, and he came to the first and said, 'Son, go, work today in my vineyard.' He answered and said, 'I will not,' but afterward he regretted it and went. Then he came to the second and said likewise. And he answered and said, 'I go, sir,' but he did not go. Which of the two did the will of his father?" They said to Him, "The first." Jesus said to them, "Assuredly, I say to you that tax collectors and harlots enter the kingdom of God before you.

It is a mystery to the natural mind and the flesh would deem it a paradox, however we who have been enlightened understand that, as the flesh perishes the spirit is made alive.

2 Corinthians 4:16

Therefore we do not lose heart. Even though our outward man is perishing, yet the inward man is being renewed day by day.

I ventured back to the comfort of my bed and cared little for what I had just witnessed.

It may seem unusual for the reader to accept this underwhelmed attitude of mine toward such an incredible move of God. Few Christians will witness such a miracle. I wanted out of the ministry back in Australia many months prior to traveling to Guatemala. I was running on pure obedience with no measure of desire or motivation and was now stuck in Guatemala with no money.

Acts 9:16

For I will show him how many things he must suffer for My name's sake.

The day had arrived to check out of the accommodation and I had enough money to cover a further two nights at a cheaper hostel, then I was on the streets homeless. I checked into the hostel for the remaining two nights and at this stage, I was wrestling with the Lord with ferocity and charged Him with cruelty and neglect;

“Sure! You can raise the dead however when it comes to finances with me, Your hand is always short!”

I was furious and rebellious.

Surely I am not the only Christian to have experienced this type of outburst and have struggled in the midst of severe trials. We tend to say all sorts of things or we go into a type of silent mode and find refuge in idolatry away from the Lord.

We know the Lord uses affliction to purge rebellion from our hearts as the scriptures testify to this process.

Psalm 119:67

Before I was afflicted I went astray, but now I keep Your word.

Psalm 34:19

Many are the afflictions of the righteous, but the Lord delivers him out of them all.

On the last day of my accommodation I went for a walk into Guatemala city with frustration and anger fueling every step. Within the central city park I discovered a group of people gathered and a preacher in their midst who was delivering a fiery and anointed message. I could not understand the sermon delivered in Spanish, but the presence of God was evident. I remained for a while then made my way back to the hostel. I went to bed angry and discouraged due to anxiety over the thought of walking onto the streets the following day homeless, however the Holy Spirit was able to give me peace enough to calm me to sleep.

Psalm 118:5

I called on the Lord in distress; The Lord answered me and set me in a broad place.

Psalm 30:5

For His anger is but for a moment, His favour is for life; Weeping may endure for a night, But joy comes in the morning.

The following morning I awoke somewhat anxious about stepping onto the streets of Guatemala with no money but the Lord strengthened me, and I began experiencing His peace and love again as I repented of my rebellion and sin.

1 Samuel 15:23

For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, And stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry.

I wept while packing my backpack because I was tired and fearful of the unknown outcome of the day. I placed my Bible on the ground and literally stood on it, and prayed;

“Lord, today I am standing on Your Word. I only ask I have a bed to sleep in tonight.”

As I exited the accommodation carrying my backpack I asked the Lord;

“What is happening to me and what are you trying to teach me Lord?”

“I am delivering you from fear Peter.” He responded.

“Ok then Lord. Let me not waste this opportunity to grow.” I said.

I thanked Him and an incredible boldness came over me as I marched the streets of Guatemala in confidence knowing I was a servant of the Living God and His eyes were fixed on me, along with a multitude of Heavenly hosts.

I prayed to the Lord;

“You need to take control of me today because I do not know where to go or what to do.”

I began walking and was led to a park in the city where there were many homeless people.

How was I led? The Lord supernaturally took control of my thoughts and movements when required remembering I had no idea where to go and what to do. This has happened many times on my mission trips whether on foot, in the car, or in the middle of nowhere with no compass or map.

Isaiah 30:21

Your ears shall hear a word behind you, saying, “This is the way, walk in it,” Whenever you turn to the right hand Or whenever you turn to the left.

I was still somewhat anxious but the Lord was there with every thought and step. I sat down and started reading my Bible and praying. I was there for twenty minutes and asked the Lord;

“What am I doing Lord?”

“Wait! Do not move!”, the Lord responded.

Moments later I got restless and asked the same question again although adding this time;

“... this is nonsense Lord!”

“Wait! Do not move!”, The Lord repeated.

Minutes later a man approached me who did not speak a word of English, only Spanish. We awkwardly used Google Translate to communicate and he revealed to me he was a Christian. I perceived the Holy Spirit was compelling him to help me and he was trying to discern in what capacity.

He told me that he was a poor man with little to offer but could take me to his home and take care of me. Suddenly, as though someone unseen had interjected into his thought processing he said;

“I will give you this and be at peace brother.”

He then walked away and I was discouraged as my hopes had climbed when he offered me accommodation.

The man gave me ten quetzales [Guatemalan money]. This does not sound like much but the purchasing power in Guatemala is strong so it was enough for my accommodation that night. This mighty man of God had heard perfectly from the Holy Spirit and although he strongly desired to take care of me, he yielded to the will of God that he was not the brother to assist me with accommodation at this time. This mans incredible sensitivity to the Holy Spirit, and his act of faith to give even though he was poor, would build a vital bridge to the events that would soon follow.

God is the great architect and we are merely His labourers and we are not always shown the reasons God asks for us to perform certain tasks. The greatest acts of faith are those performed when we do not see the conclusion of a matter after responding in obedience. This is child-like faith, derived from a soft and willing heart of obedience. As the story continues to unfold, we will see how God was building toward a greater purpose.

Zechariah 4:6

‘Not by might nor by power, but by My Spirit,’ Says the Lord of hosts.

I sat there and asked the Lord;

“What next Lord?”

“Go to central park where the preacher delivered a sermon yesterday.”, the Lord replied without delay.

I began walking to the park and as I approached, the same preacher was there delivering a sermon which confirmed that God was in complete control of my movements. There was a plan, and the pieces were being moved around on the board according to God's will.

While listening to the sermon, even though I did not understand the Spanish being spoken, the Lord revealed to me that this man was a chosen vessel of His in the coming revival in Guatemala, and the Lord had shown this man many years ago and to this day, that he would be a part of this great work. The Lord gave me specific instructions and told me;

“When the sermon is finished. Approach the preacher and give him the ten quetzales that was given to you. Tell him you are from Australia, that you are a prophet of mine and tell him you were sent to assist and support him in preparing for the coming revival, that the Lord had revealed to him also. Tell him you are to go and stay with him.”

I did all I was commanded and the man discussed this with a widow, who ministered with him on the streets, and they agreed to take me home.

I told the preacher;

“That is good. The Lord was testing your faith just as He tested my faith when He asked me to give you all my money which would have covered my accommodation tonight, otherwise I would have been homeless.”

The preacher was startled by my words and faith in God.

That evening the three of us prayed and sought the Lord on our next movements. The Lord gave me instructions that the three of us should go out ministering as done previously by the two although at the end of the sermons, the preacher should introduce me and inform the crowd I was from Australia, and had been sent to proclaim a prophetic word of a soon approaching revival. I would also minister to the sick by praying for them and give prophetic words when required.

I carried the preachers bags and megaphone he used to preach on the streets which he struggled to accept, because foreign Christian ministers typically go to Guatemala to promote themselves and do not humble themselves in this manner. This was a sign to him I was sent from the Lord to serve in that hour.

Matthew 23:11

But he who is greatest among you shall be your servant.

There were also other street preachers on the streets of Guatemala so my foreign appearance and presence was evidence the Lord was doing a work in seeking to draw people to this street preacher. I knew this man of God had been tested through many seasons of hardship having heard his ministry exploits and he was also extremely poor, yet faithful and unwavering in his faith toward his calling.

One morning the preacher asked me to which town we should travel to minister. I believe he asked this question because he was not sure I would remain content with serving him and following his leading in the ministry, to which I responded;

“The Lord has spoken to me clearly that He will speak to you about where to go and I should simply serve you, the work and minister according to my gifts.”

My response surprised him and I noticed his faith build in knowing God had sent him a humble servant from a foreign country, and the fulfillment of the promise to him was coming to pass.

When we are obedient to Gods will, we discover that He is found in the smallest details of life, whether they appear to be good or bad, that lead to a much broader story-line even though it is mostly a mystery to us.

Ecclesiastes 3:11

He has made everything beautiful in its time. Also He has put eternity in their hearts, except that no one can find out the work that God does from beginning to end.

We witnessed an abundance of fruit however not without fierce opposition.

1 Corinthians 16:9

For a great and effective door has opened to me, and there are many adversaries.

People disrupted the meetings by openly mocking the sermons and laughing. Filthy stray dogs would constantly venture in and congregate around the preachers feet and engage in sexual acts which caused attendees to laugh at the spectacle and it was a great disruption, however we knew they were ferocious demonic attacks.

2 Corinthians 2:11

Lest Satan should take advantage of us; for we are not ignorant of his devices.

We did not yield for a moment.

The widow and I would fervently intercede in prayer and when required, I ran after the dogs to drive them well clear of the preacher.

The three of us continued to pray and fast together in unity.

Occasionally during the sermons, the Lord would give me a prophetic word to give someone, so I would type it out on Google translate, walk over and deliver it to them personally. Many of them were startled because the prophecies contained words of knowledge, particularly those who were church leaders. This was the Lord assuring them it was Him speaking and to take careful note of the words spoken.

During one sermon, a young homeless man who lived in the park and had clearly lost his mind sat next to me. He kept trying to engage me in foolish chatter and when this did not work, he said to me, “Satan is my master!” I looked at him intently straight into his eyes and commanded him to stand up and declared;

“Demonio! En nombre de Jesús! Salir!”

Which is translated to English, “Demon! In the name of Jesus! Get out!” I had taught myself prayers in Spanish to handle such situations for the sake of those present.

The demon immediately left the man and he began to weep profusely. It would have been the first time anyone in the town had witnessed this man cry, including himself. I attempted to lead him into a prayer of salvation however he was unwilling. Minutes went by and he returned to his previous state of mind; talking nonsense, making strange noises and dancing about in mockery. The man had foolishly left the door wide open for the demon to re-enter him.

Luke 11:24-26

“When an unclean spirit goes out of a man, he goes through dry places, seeking rest; and finding none, he says, ‘I will return to my house from which I came.’ And when he comes, he finds it swept and put in order. Then he goes and takes with him seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter and dwell there; and the last state of that man is worse than the first.”

God cannot force a man against his free will and can only intervene at their request in accordance with His will. If a man desires to remain in rebellion to the Lord and demon possessed, demon possessed the man shall remain.

The season of this ministry lasted two weeks. We boarded a 'Chicken Bus' [colourful customized buses] each morning and traveled into town centres to minister as the Holy Spirit led.

One morning the Lord revealed to me our work was finished as a ministry group and it was time for us all to separate, including the preacher separating from the widow. I was not aware at the time, but the Lord desired the preacher sever ties with the widow and begin building a ministry team outside the ministry support network he had grown accustomed. I approached the situation extremely delicately however it was met with fierce opposition from the preacher as it was a huge step of faith for him due to his poverty. I requested he depart in peace and trust it was the Lords will. It was an extremely difficult and awkward situation, however a prophet of the Lord must always speak the mind of the Lord regardless of the consequences.

1 Kings 22:13-14

Then the messenger who had gone to call Micaiah spoke to him, saying, "Now listen, the words of the prophets with one accord encourage the king. Please, let your word be like the word of one of them, and speak encouragement." And Micaiah said, "As the Lord lives, whatever the Lord says to me, that I will speak."

I remained with the widow a further week to keep her company and strengthen her faith. After this time, I was provided with funds and was able to return to Australia in February 2018.

When I returned to Australia I was reunited with my family however not my son due to the restrictions of a court order. I had not seen or spoken with anyone for many months due to my son and I having been reported as missing persons as a result of doing what the Lord commanded. This resulted in law enforcement becoming involved and leading to my arrests, incarceration and loss of visiting rights to my son.

In the background, the Lord was using these circumstances to spread my testimony through multiple media and social networks and planting seeds that will sprout in the coming season. His Spirit weaving the tapestry once again.

Reuniting with everyone was an extremely difficult season for me however I cannot apologize for doing exactly what the Lord commanded, regardless of how outrageous my actions may have appeared to everyone else.

There were many times I strongly desired to turn back to a comfortable lifestyle away from the trials but I always considered my brethren in Christ all over the world who were giving their lives for the Gospel. I thought it would be a great offense to the martyrs if I was to draw-back in intimidation due to some discomfort and adversity. Had I turned back at anytime, I would not have this incredible testimony and have entered into the higher calling in Christ Jesus.

Esther 4:13-14

And Mordecai told them to answer Esther: "Do not think in your heart that you will escape in the king's palace any more than all the other Jews. For if you remain completely silent at this time, relief and deliverance will arise for the Jews from another place, but you and your father's house will perish. Yet who knows whether you have come to the kingdom for such a time as this?"

My family questioned me on how it was possible I ended up in Guatemala as they assisted me with my return to Australia. I told them I was in Darwin and prayed to the Lord and he told me to go to Guatemala. They thought this was strange although loved and supported me as much as they were able considering the circumstances, for which I am grateful. I can understand why they would think I was somewhat delusional considering, I had thought this of myself many times along the way.

2 Corinthians 4:8-9

We are hard-pressed on every side, yet not crushed; we are perplexed, but not in despair; persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed.

I know through experience what it means to be perplexed & struck down.

When I returned to Australia from Guatemala and the Lord left me stranded for months without money or a plan while people gazed at me as though God had failed me, after having suffered so much, I threw my Bible in the garbage along with my journals. On one occasion while ministering in Albany Western Australia, I was stranded and sleeping in my car for weeks with no money, fuel or food and had to bathe in the cold southern ocean in the middle of winter. I thought I had lost my mind and in those moments I could only pray;

“Lord, you said you would never leave nor forsake me and I do not see you in these circumstances but you are here with me, otherwise what you said is not the truth and I know it is the truth.”

Hebrews 13:5

“I will never leave you nor forsake you.”

Oh! The burden to carry ones cross.

Many Christians have never experienced the burden of carrying their cross. Jesus was sweating blood in the garden of Gethsemane well before He was violently struck. The Lord experienced unthinkable anguish in taking upon our sins and suffered an unbearable spiritual nausea while consuming that great darkness of all sin as He began His journey to the cross and tomb.

Imagine the worst sickness you have ever experienced. Nothing compares.

Months had passed in Australia after having returned from Guatemala and I was now ministering in Albany Western Australia for the second time.

While in Albany in June 2018, I read reports in the news that Volcano Fuego [Volcano of Fire] in Guatemala had erupted violently. The eruption was catastrophic and the characteristics of the eruption were similar to the one that destroyed Pompeii. The volcano erupted with a series of volcanic explosions that caused pyroclastic flows, lahars [mud flows] and clouds of volcanic ash with almost no evacuation time causing the death of many Guatemalans. The towns the street preacher, widow and I had ministered in were hit worst. It also displaced thousands of residents who found refuge in public shelters. The impact to the Guatemalan economy was significant and much agricultural wealth destroyed.

Consequently, many people we had ministered to have passed away and gone to their eternal homes, be it heaven or hell. Our ministering to the people in the towns selected by the Holy Spirit was a final trumpet for many dead.

The preacher had been prophesying throughout his ministry the coming volcanic eruption and I had been prophesying the coming revival.

I was annoyed with the Lord somewhat for not revealing to me the coming volcanic eruption prior to meeting with the preacher and how the eruption would start the revival. When I proclaimed the prophetic word of the coming revival to Guatemalans, they would often ask me if the volcano was about to erupt. I would tell them I can only speak the word the Lord gives me, nothing more & nothing less, otherwise anything beyond would be speculative and false. I would only share with them that a great revival was coming to Guatemala.

When I got the news of the volcanic eruption, I engaged the Lord in prayer and in frustration I said;

“You mean to tell me I traveled to Guatemala with incredible faith and suffered much on top of everything else I have suffered, and you could not reveal to me this simple piece of information that the volcano would erupt and only revealed of the coming revival! I told people I was a prophet and proclaimed revival and they must think I am a half-baked prophet!”

1 Corinthians 13:9

For we know in part and we prophesy in part.

The Lord responded firmly;

“Peter, you do not need to know everything!

You performed the portion of work I required of you in Guatemala and for that I am pleased. I had reserved the honour of that work to My faithful servants whom I had formerly promised and prepared for this season which included the preacher you faithfully served.

Go your way!

You know that I have committed to you Australia if you continue in obedience otherwise you should know Me by now. I have a plan A, B, C, D, so on and so forth, to deal with the lazy, cowardly, stubborn and rebellious! In fact, for all you know, you may very well have been my plan E due the unwillingness of others who rejected this higher calling.

Be at peace!”

Luke 17:10

When you have done all those things which you are commanded, say, ‘We are unprofitable servants. We have done what was our duty to do.’

Matthew 20:16

The last will be first, and the first last. For many are called, but few chosen.

I responded humbly;

“I am mere dust dear Lord and who am I to contend with your Spirit. I repent in dust and ashes.”

Job 42:6

Therefore I abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes.

You will notice my conversations with the Lord are sharp and direct. The reason is He expects more from me because He has revealed and entrusted a greater authority to me. I am not offended or discouraged by the demanding tone and content of His speech and I do not take it as a failure on my part. I had mentors in my corporate career who were extremely tough so why would I not allow the Father of lights to mentor me knowing it is always for my benefit and for the benefit of others.

I am a man, and He is God, and I am content for our relationship to remain that way for my sake.

Matthew 18:2-5

Then Jesus called a little child to Him, set him in the midst of them, and said, "Assuredly, I say to you, unless you are converted and become as little children, you will by no means enter the kingdom of heaven. Therefore whoever humbles himself as this little child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven. Whoever receives one little child like this in My name receives Me.

These conversations between the Lord and His servant should sound familiar if you have studied the prophets of the Bible. If you do not fear the Lord, let me urge you to diligently seek out the fear of the Lord which is a component of faith that has been neglected in this age of self-indulgence and irreverence for God.

Matthew 10:28

Fear God who is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.

Hebrews 12:29

For our God is a consuming fire.

His immeasurable grace and love toward us must not be forgotten while also reminding ourselves that any thoughts and plans to oppose Him are futile as we simply cannot prevail against Him.

Psalm 111:10

The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom; a good understanding have all those who do His commandments. His praise endures forever.

A wise brother once told me the Lord will use the pathway [person] of least resistance and nothing is further from the truth.

I have personally witnessed people miss their higher calling because they believe that God is sweet & fluffy as cotton candy, and they are able to continually press the snooze button on His beckoning to go deeper. That, He will somehow find a way to work in with their personal plans and schedules.

The truth is the times and seasons are predetermined by the Father and He waits for no man to execute His will.

Matthew 7:23

And then I will declare to them, 'I never knew you; depart from Me, you who practice lawlessness!'

To think otherwise is foolishness and demonstrates little understanding of the purpose and pathway to the cross of Christ, and the precious sacrifice of the Christ who willingly surrendered Himself into tremendous sufferings for the sake of others.

It unsettles me I was so close to missing the higher calling by simply accepting an attractive job offer I needed at the time, rather than obeying God, which I touch on later.

There are many examples in the Bible of people missing their calling and you need look no further than King Saul.

1 Samuel 15:26

But Samuel said to Saul, "I will not return with you, for you have rejected the word of the Lord, and the Lord has rejected you from being king over Israel."

If the Lord wills, I may return to Guatemala to reunite with my fellow ministers in Christ.

I purposely started with the Guatemalan mission testimony to build your faith so you can more easily accept the adverse circumstances I encountered earlier in my calling, and demonstrate that God had planned an incredible adventure if I trusted in Him completely.

The Lord is faithful and will never disappoint you on the other side of trust and obedience.

Proverbs 3:5-6

Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding; In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct your paths.

A Visitation from the Lord

1 Corinthians 15:6

After that, Jesus was seen by over five hundred brethren at once.

In 2017, I had a successful career as a manager in Financial Crime compliance in banking, specializing in Anti-Money Laundering & Counter Terrorism Financing. I had spent most of my professional career as a forensic investigator and was exceptional at this work, having also obtained a University Bachelors degree with a double major in Commercial Law & Accounting. Life looked promising on the surface however I was emotionally and spiritually bankrupt.

I was born again in 1996 and my conversion was significant. I had a remarkable encounter with the living God in Jesus Christ and He immediately delivered me from many of the typical addictions prevalent in this modern age.

During the years of my Christian walk, my wife of ten years left me and consequently our 7 year old son remained with me under a sole custody arrangement. I had also suffered a significant financial loss to a failed business venture and my Christian walk always seemed to be met with challenges I did not see in the worldly and Christian alike. I was in search of the higher calling in Christ Jesus although I must admit, the temptations of Australia's prosperity culture weakened my walk as is common with many today.

I completed Bible college in the year 2000 and it was common practice at the completion of each year for a well respected Australian prophet to meet with the students and give them personal prophecies. I mentioned earlier the prophecy spoken to me shook the meeting with thundering. It was a heavily anointed word and below is the prophecy.

There are mountains to climb!

*And I'm telling you, there are some exhilarating places in the heartbeat were God takes a person, if they're willing to go there
If they are willing to exert the kind of energy of climbing mountains and stretching the limits of the human spirit that will do adventurous things for God*

That will push the boundaries, that will allow stretching There's incredible honour and privilege for those who will go the extra mile

*Who will carry the responsibility of life upon their shoulders
Who are just not going to meddle but are actually going to live life out*

*Who are just not going to look at the surface things
There is pain in life!
But on the other side of pain is increased muscle
On the other side of pain there is increased learning
On the other side of pain is maturity
But for those who want to take the pathway of least resistance, they don't enter into any of those kinds of rewards
But God is calling you!
Because there is a generation of people
Thousands upon thousands upon thousands that are waiting on some young men and some young women
To lead them and to show them what happens when someone faces the music
When someone pays a price!
There's a generation of people who said, "I don't want to pay a price!" and have got the reward of no price....nothing in life!
But you sir will pay it! God asks you to*

This prophecy speaks of two generational shifts. A generation descending into apostasy followed by an age of multitudes pursuing the Lord in repentance, or hardening their hearts in rebellion toward God's will.

We are now back to the year 2017.

Early that year I abruptly resigned from my job because I no longer had the motivation to meet the demanding responsibilities of a leadership position. I was not walking with the Lord at the time and had not attended Church for a few years. I charged the Lord with being irresponsible for allowing the sufferings that were ever present each time I went deeper with Him in obeying His word and yielding to His will. I also held him directly responsible for my failed marriage and business as I could not understand why everyone else seemed to be going from strength to strength. The prophecy I received in 2000 kept me engaged with the Lord through the afflictions for many years, however I eventually gave up and resolved His will was too burdensome.

In the week following my resignation from work, I wrestled with the Lord in stubbornness on my part, but I eventually surrendered again entirely to the Lord. That was the time He spoke to me, declaring;

“Peter, let me love you!”

When I heard these words it was exactly what I wanted to hear, and did not want to hear. I know that God's love comes with discipline, and that of our flesh. The Lord desired to discipline me in love so I could be free to worship Him. To obey Him. This also meant I would need to attend to some matters I did not want to deal with. We all know how this looks.

My initial rebellion was against His discipline and in avoiding it, I found myself distancing myself from His love and returning to seeking out worldly desires away from Him. I could have avoided many years of pain.

I was now on the road to reconciliation and healing in the Lord due to a new found acceptance of His discipline. He cradled me in His arms as only the Lord Jesus is able and I spent many hours and days in tears on my knees and laying surrendered before Him.

On a certain day, I was in my kitchen weeping before the Lord of how I had rebelled against His goodness and all He did for me on the Cross and looked to Heaven and cried;

“I am totally useless to the world and to You! I have sinned greatly against You Lord!”

I continued as I held up my hands and cried;

“I have these hands Lord and that is all I have at this moment! If you are able to use them for your Kingdom they are yours!”

Immediately, the spirit of the Lord fell upon me and He reminded me of the prodigal son. He placed a ring on my finger and a robe over my shame [Luke 15:11-24] and told me;

“I love you my son. Fear not, for you are safe with Me.”

I fell to my knees and wept many tears of joy.

During this season of healing the Lord spoke to me another word about applying for work;

“Do nothing and see what I will do!”

Psalm 46:10

Be still, and know that I am God.

The Lord began revealing to me He was preparing me to enter the ministry. Doing nothing to meet your financial obligations is challenging and is 'financial suicide' in highly expensive Sydney city, however I trusted in the Lords faithfulness.

Soon after, I received a job offer for a well paid position that was extremely tempting. I prayed to the Lord on whether I should accept the job as there was the pressure of mounting overdue bills. He did not respond. Complete silence! I thought, what is going on? I prayed fervently and there was no response and no direction given. I settled my thoughts and carefully considered my circumstances then recalled the Lord had told me to “Do nothing!”. I had forgotten this command because I began focusing on my circumstances and anxiety began ruling my thoughts.

I resolved within myself, if that is what He commanded, then I shall obey Him and do nothing and reject the job offer, which I did.

I prayed to the Lord;

“Lord, you told me to do nothing so that is what I will do regardless of where it leads. I have rejected the job offer.”

Immediately the Lord replied;

“Peter, you are understanding well for I do not repeat Myself nor do I repent of My word. You are either onboard or you can settle for mediocrity and return to the life you once hated and I will love you regardless.”

“Lord, I will wait on you.”, I replied.

This experience humbled me greatly and put the fear of the Lord in me like I have never experienced. I may very well have missed the hour of visitation when He called. The ministry opportunity would have passed by unnoticed, as I would have soon forgotten His command to “Do nothing!”. I would have settled into a new life, in a new job completely oblivious.

Is the Lord asking you to do something? Please consider, not every attractive opportunity is where God desires to lead you even though He may care for you in that circumstance should you choose a tempting 'Plan B'. Do not miss your opportunity. Simply act in obedience and trust God.

The Lord now had me completely engaged in that He was drawing me into revealing to me His ways.

I read Psalm 95 and prayed to the Lord;

“Lord, I do not want to grieve you. Teach me Your ways. I will listen and obey You regardless of how much it conflicts with my understanding.”

Psalm 95:7-11

Today, if you will hear His voice: “Do not harden your hearts, as in the rebellion, As in the day of trial in the wilderness, When your fathers tested Me; They tried Me, though they saw My work. For forty years I was grieved with that generation, And said, ‘It is a *people who go astray in their hearts,

And they do not know My ways.' So I swore in My wrath, 'They shall not enter My rest.' ”*

I began taking walks each morning to Sydney harbour and would pray to the Lord and intercede for the city. These were precious moments in His presence I will never forget. During this time the Lord started asking me;

“Peter, what do you see?”

“Lord, I see a great judgement on the city!”, I replied.

“You have seen well, for I am ready to perform my word.”, the Lord said.

Christians often ask me how I am able to discern and articulate the prophetic word and words of knowledge in the Spirit. I would prefer not to go into detail in how this occurs as He speaks to me in a number of ways, as He does to you. God willing, I may at some stage write a book on receiving and handling the prophetic word. I will say that His words must always be handled in meekness and fear.

What I can also share is there is no fast-tracking pathway that will accelerate you into the office of prophet who typically is in full-time ministry & separated unto the Lord, which is remarkably different from a Saint who exercises a gift in prophecy; which is the most common manifestation of the gift.

There are essentially three types of prophets and the third, apart from the two previously mentioned, is a generational prophet such as Jeremiah and John the Baptist. Generational prophets are commissioned with carrying the burden of a heavy prophetic word dealing with coming judgements and revivals. Other prophets may speak the same prophecy however they do not carry the immense persecution and difficulties that come with the prophecy. Study the prophets and you will discover I am on point.

Generational prophets must be prepared in a furnace of affliction and experience most of what is outlined in Psalm 22. They often arrive on the scene seemingly out of nowhere having no reputation. A generational prophet has been prepared in the wilderness having been tested to within an inch of their life to strip them of their flesh so what remains is God breathed.

In due season, they come forth with a sword and tempest in their mouth to test the hearts of men, as directed by the Lord. The Lord uses such a vessel to warn, prepare and determine who is worthy of carrying the important and delicate responsibilities of caring for His inheritance during a new season, where there is an outpouring of His Spirit in abundance.

The severe chastisement is necessary so the prophet is able to cope under the pressures of receiving great praise and persecution during the season of the fulfillment of the prophecy.

The Praise Component of the Prophetic Ministry

John 2:23-25

Now when He was in Jerusalem at the Passover, during the feast, many believed in His name when they saw the signs which He did. But Jesus did not commit Himself to them, because He knew all men, and had no need that anyone should testify of man, for He knew what was in man.

The Persecution Component of the Prophetic Ministry

Matthew 12:13-14

Then He said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." And he stretched it out, and it was restored as whole as the other. Then the Pharisees went out and plotted against Him, how they might destroy Him.

Perhaps at this stage you are able to discern which kind I am, although it is not my intention to use this testimony to demonstrate or convince anyone of my authority in the Lord. The Lord knows me and satan has come to learn of the Lords grace on my life and in what capacity I will execute my authority in this present age.

Acts 19:15

And the evil spirit answered and said, "Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are you?"

If you struggle with hearing the Lords voice and discerning His will for your life, you are presently in a seriously unhealthy spiritual state. The below scripture are the words of Jesus Christ, and He does not lie.

John 10:27

My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me.

We do not see Jesus. If we cannot hear Him, how then are we able to follow Him? Are you truly following Jesus?

During this time, I allowed the Lord to heal me of all my hurt and brokenness that had compounded over many years. I read my Bible and listened to audio sermons most of the day, and on one particular day, I was listening to an audio sermon at home on, 'Counting the Cost for Christ!'

The Holy Spirit fired a word into my spirit like a lightening bolt;

“Have you counted the cost?”

The word startled me and the question came with the full revelation that absolutely everything was on the table. I found myself in a difficult predicament and could only think of responding with;

“I need to think about this Lord.”

[Luke 14:28]

I went to bed and rested a couple of hours. When I arose, I sat on the same chair I had experienced the previous encounter and prayed;

“Ok Lord, I am ready to forsake all. Regardless of the cost.”

Immediately the Holy Spirit fired another word into my spirit;

“Sell everything!”

[Matthew 4:19-20]

The command startled me and figuratively knocked me back into my chair as there was definitely no ambiguity with these words.

You may think it odd that I told the Lord I would need to think about His question. Allow me to challenge you for a moment. Perhaps He has not asked you to take on a burden because He already knows your answer? With that said, do not fear the Lord will ask you to perform a task you are unable to fulfil. Jesus will not request everyone to do what He was asking of me. He created me to live an extreme life and I would not be truly happy or functional anywhere else. Remember, He is good always & consider 'The Parable of the Talents' [Matthew 25:14-30].

As mentioned previously, at the time of my calling, I had established a professional career in the financial services industry, and had the typical responsibilities of adult life, including the challenge of being a single parent to my beloved fifteen year old son.

I was anxious to say the least not knowing what the outcome might be, if I should proceed in obedience. The governing factor was I had peace in my spirit and knew it was the Lord calling me.

I began surveying my lounge room and it's contents while observing the Sydney city views from my city apartment and began bidding farewell to a life I once knew.

I procrastinated for a week and failed to begin selling my possessions as commanded and rationalized I could always give and throw my possessions away. I resolved the Lord would meet my needs some other way. A week later I ran out of money. The following weekend I was driving to a sports field to watch my son play soccer and my car ran out of petrol 100 metres from my apartment so I had to walk the remaining kilometers. This upset me greatly and I took it to the Lord in prayer shouting;

“What is happening? Are you with me or not?”

The Lord responded; “Peter, I instructed you to sell everything. Not to delay & give or throw them away!”

Isaiah 55:11

So shall My word be that goes forth from My mouth; It shall not return to Me void, But it shall accomplish what I please, And it shall prosper in the thing for which I sent it.

The Lord was teaching me a critical lesson to not deviate from His instructions and interpret them as I deemed fit, which would be of great necessity over the next couple of years.

There is no denying that adverse circumstances prompt the flesh into obeying His commands when we deviate from His will.

Over a three month period I allowed the Lord to dismantle my life in disposing of all my possessions and dealing with the eviction process as I had no funds to continue paying rent. The Lord was faithful and spoke to me in dreams, visions & revelations on a daily basis and during my sleep. In fact, it felt as though I was in the school of the Holy Spirit which was also His way of providing me with constant assurance He was in total control. It was such a life upheaval, I needed to sense Him close to me otherwise I would have been crippled with anxiety.

In the third month during the night while sleeping in my Sydney city apartment, I awoke to a glorious light that filled my entire bedroom. I could not open my eyes and I also knew it was not permitted. I would describe the experience of the light being similar to when you point a torch at your eyes with your eyelids closed. It was the Lord standing next to my bed. He said to me;

“My hand is upon this city. Judgement is coming.”

“My hand is upon this city. Judgement is coming.”

“My hand is upon this city. Judgement is coming.”

The Lord repeated this statement three times and each time I begged Him to stop speaking because the authority of His words have such an incredible weight to them I was struggling to cope. When He speaks, it feels as though every atom of your body stops still and nothing moves or can move, and that He has the power to dismantle you and put you back together in a moment. I was not afraid and was at peace but there is no questioning His authority and the space He occupies in that, He is everything and everywhere. He is with no doubt, the King of Kings & the Lord of Lords.

Romans 14:11

As I live, says the Lord, Every knee shall bow to Me, And every tongue shall confess to God.

Each time He spoke the words, I begged Him to stop;

“Ok Lord! I understand!”

The Lord was not deterred by my petitions for Him to stop speaking and repeated the statement three times. In that situation, in His presence, you are utterly powerless.

When He had finished speaking, He remained with me for a moment in silence and I felt Him looking at me with His great love and He peacefully departed with the Glorious light leaving with Him. I remained on my bed in the darkness of the night and thought for a time of what had just transpired and the weight of His words. I thanked the Lord for the honour of the visitation and went to sleep rejoicing and at peace.

The following morning as I awoke, I immediately recalled my encounter with the Lord that night and the Holy Spirit was heavily upon me. I sat at my dining room table and prayed to the Lord;

“Lord, you visited me last night and spoke clearly concerning your plans. You have now confirmed what you have been revealing to me about coming judgement in Sydney and the nation of Australia. If this is a prophetic word I am to carry somewhere, I pray you allow me to articulate it in accordance with Habakkuk 2. The judgement you spoke of may be economic &/or a natural catastrophe therefore I pray you reveal the details to me; if it is your will.”

Habakkuk 2:2-3

Write the vision And make it plain on tablets, That he may run who reads it. For the vision is yet for an appointed time; But at the end it will speak, and it will not lie. Though it tarries, wait for it; Because it will surely come, It will not tarry.

I was directed by the Holy Spirit to get a pen and paper, and I wrote the following words without pausing or correcting a word;

My hand is upon this city

Its sins can no longer be ignored or tolerated

I am lifting My mighty hand to inflict this city with great distress

To turn it away from its fruitless pursuit of self

The remnant will understand it is the Lord Almighty who has performed this exploit, and the nation will be divided between;

those who repent into healing, and those who harden their hearts

against My hands of mercy

I am coming soon

I am at the door

Says the Lord Almighty

Once I had finished writing, I reflected on the visitation and prophetic word. I understood it was no time to be playing the fool and should take immediate responsibility and accept the urgency of the hour. From this time onward, I began to feel an acceleration with the Holy Spirit to wind up my life and get on the road to where the Lord would lead.

The Lord placed in my heart to begin on the Gold Coast in Queensland.

The Mission in Australia

It took several trips with my car to the rubbish dump to throw thousands of dollars away of my possessions. There simply was no time to sell them all or give them away as the Lord was now pressuring me to leave Sydney.

Family and friends had no idea of my plans and I was unable to tell them as nobody would believe what was happening. The Lord comforted me that this was fine even though it caused me all sorts of grief and damage to relationships.

Matthew 19:29

And everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or wife or children or lands, for My name's sake, shall receive a hundredfold, and inherit eternal life.

The main issue was my son. I knew if I brought him along on the mission his mother would be extremely upset and it would become a legal matter through the family courts, even though I would have been justified in doing so, as she was not actively involved in raising our son as required, and she was also not walking with the Lord at the time. I prayed fervently to the Lord whether I should take my son with me and it was a clear, “Yes”. I knew this action would cause many problems however it was no time to deviate from the Lord's commands in light of the urgency of the hour.

The car was packed full and my son and I departed into the unknown; well at least to Queensland for starters.

The Red Sea was closing in behind me and I could only look ahead.

I was now on the Gold Coast for two weeks and one night while asleep I had a word come to me from the Lord:

“A tsunami will hit the south east coast of Australia.”

I previously mentioned that I requested of the Lord He reveal to me the details of the judgements, if it was His will.

The manner in which the Lord spoke this word to me was similar to how He had shown me the outcome of the following events;

- The Brexit vote would be 'Yes' in 2016
- Donald Trump would be elected US president in November 2016
- Emmanuel Macron would be elected president of France in 2017

On three separate nights while fast asleep before each of these events, a word would be fired into my spirit and I heard: “Trump”, “Brexit”, “Macron”.

You may recall the first two events were unlikely outcomes.

What I should disclose is during the time of these events, I was not walking with the Lord and in rebellion. I was an avid student of economics and world events and researched these events intensely believing it was my intellect that was determining the outcomes. This was partly true, however the Lord was showing me one manner in which He would speak to me and was also showing me He was calling me as a prophet.

For those of you who have studied difficult subjects at school or university, you may recall instances when your mind regurgitated study material while you slept and would awake. This is what I thought was happening to me. Many people thought I was delusional when I told them what I believed would be the outcome of these events. Needless to say, they were in shock when they came to pass, particularly Trump and Brexit, which were considered near impossibilities. As any normal person would do in those circumstances, I took all credit for calling the outcomes, however I discovered later it was God all along.

When I received the word regarding a tsunami, it immediately brought to my remembrance three terrifying visions I had received back in 1997 just after I was born again.

Let us stop here for a moment. Please read the chapter later in this book called 'Understanding Dreams & Visions' before reading on if you need to familiarize yourself on the purpose for them being given. Otherwise, continue reading.

In 1997 I was led by the Holy Spirit to fast from food for three days. On the third day during the night while asleep, I had the following three visions consecutively.

First Vision

I was shown an old steam locomotive/train that I understood to be coming from the south and it was so large its chimney reached the clouds and was dragging them along. The vision ended and the second vision started.

Second Vision

I was shown the back of a crocodile that had a door in its back and there were dead bodies lying and scattered outside of the crocodile and other people were entering the crocodile through the door. The vision ended and the third vision started.

Third Vision

I was shown an extremely disturbing scene of a crowd of people picketing in desperation with protester signs in front of a Woolworths truck [Australian grocery retailer] that was carrying provisions, the truck was pressing forward slowly and running the people over. I was shown a close up of the face of a man and the trucks wheel was moving over and crushing his face and head. The pain he was experiencing was the collective pain and anguish being experienced by the masses. The vision ended and the image of the mans face being squashed was so terrifying it shocked me into waking up in great fear and I was sweating.

I knew the visions were related due to receiving them consecutively.

After twenty years of not understanding the visions, the Lord had now begun revealing to me the interpretation, just at the right time and only after I obediently responded to His calling. I believe if I had not acted in obedience when He called in 2017, I would never have been given the interpretation and would have encountered the fulfilment of these events as they occurred. Now the Lord was revealing His plans to me prior to the events taking place.

Amos 3:6-7

If a trumpet is blown in a city, will not the people be afraid? If there is calamity in a city, will not the Lord have done it? Surely the Lord God does nothing, Unless He reveals His secret to His servants the prophet.

The Interpretation of the Visions

The first vision is a great tsunami coming from the southern ocean of Australia.

Witnesses of tsunamis claim they sound like passing freight trains due to the noise generated from moving debris and infrastructure breaking under the immense pressures created by turbulence. The old steam locomotive/train indicates that similar events have occurred previously during ancient times which is a fact that has also been proven by prominent scientists beyond any doubt.

The second vision details the region of the north east coast of Australia that will not be hit by the most devastating waves of the tsunami. Crocodiles do not inhabit south of the Sunshine Coast in Queensland. The vision had dead bodies outside of the crocodile, therefore residents living within crocodile inhabited areas on the north east coast will be safe from the tsunami, however not out of reach from the economic fall-out.

The third vision is obvious and shows the distressing time following the tsunami catastrophe in Australia. The Woolworths truck confirms there will be a great scarcity of life preserving resources.

I now understood clearly that the Lord had called me to warn and prepare the Church. The prophetic word of judgement coming to Australia had been consolidated into a complete package to be delivered to those whom the Lord would direct me to visit.

1 Thessalonians 5:20-21

Do not despise prophecies. Test all things; hold fast what is good.

Over the following year I traveled a total of 50,000 kilometers [31,000 miles] all over Australia, visiting church leaders by car wherever the Lord directed, with another command the Lord gave me;

“Sanctify the Nation of Australia.”

There was no confusion when asking the Lord of the next destination as He told me exactly where, when and to whom. I wrestled with the Lord many times due to the exhaustion of driving several hours each day, setting up and packing away my traveling gear over two years of ministry, in Australia and Central America. By His grace, He strengthened me to keep moving forward.

I mentioned earlier of the immense burdens and tribulations I endured. I would constantly pray to the Lord;

“You will need to drag and carry me kicking and screaming but let us complete this great work!”

Matthew 26:41

The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.

Many church leaders and others in Australia know who I am and the prophetic word of the coming judgements I delivered to them and the specific prophecies and instructions I proclaimed to purge the Church of sin.

Australia is an extremely tough mission field compared to poorer countries due to the immense prosperity and complacency. Australian Christians are comfortable and lack empathy for those suffering or doing the work of the Lord in the mission field. I encountered, on more occasions than I care to mention, what James the Apostle spoke about in the below scripture.

James 2:16

And one of you says to them, “Depart in peace, be warmed and filled,” but you do not give them the things which are needed for the body, what does it profit?

The Lord directed me to the below scripture which outlines the general condition of the church in Australia and why judgement is coming and necessary.

Amos 6:3-7

Woe to you who put far off the day of doom, Who cause the seat of violence to come near; Who lie on beds of ivory, Stretch out on your couches, Eat lambs from the flock And calves from the midst of the stall; Who sing idly to the sound of stringed instruments, And invent for yourselves musical instruments like David; Who drink wine from bowls, And anoint yourselves with the best ointments, But are not grieved for the affliction of Joseph. Therefore they shall now go captive as the first of the captives, And those who recline at banquets shall be removed.

The idolaters both inside and outside the Church have enjoyed a time of prosperity however now, this season is well spent, and the Lord is at the door ready to collect.

Jeremiah 8:7

Even the stork in the heavens Knows her appointed times; And the turtledove, the swift, and the swallow Observe the time of their coming. But My people do not know the judgement of the Lord.

We must petition the Lord that He reveal to us our shortcomings and repent before the day of chastisement, which comes to us personally & corporately.

1 John 1:8-10

If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say that we have not sinned, we make Him a liar, and His word is not in us.

I was now in Darwin Australia and on my way to Guatemala Central America to carry yet another burden for the Lord in another nation.

Are the missions worthwhile? Painfully yes.

Jesus called it labor with good reason.

Matthew 9:38

Therefore pray the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into His harvest.

Understanding Faith in Miracle Healings

Matthew 12:39

An evil and adulterous generation seek after signs.

I was having lunch at a cafe in my first days in Antigua Guatemala in Central America which is located a few kilometers from Volcano Fuego [Volcano of Fire] which can be clearly seen from the town. Every few hours, the volcano would have a minor eruption to clear its throat and keep the locals on their toes. The eruptions sounded like the firing of a shotgun. When the Lord sent me to Antigua I was unaware there was an active volcano near the town, or in Guatemala for that matter.

I was speaking with the cafe owner and she asked me if I had seen the volcano erupt during the night. I questioned her, “What volcano?”

“Volcano Fuego just over there.”, she said while showing me some footage on her phone of the eruptions of lava exploding and spilling down the flank.

“Oh! There is a volcano here?! That is just great!!”, I replied jokingly.

I laughed within myself and said to the Lord; “You sent me to a place with an active volcano?!!”

A visibly poor man entered the cafe and began asking patrons whether they would assist him. He came to my table and began revealing how he was poor, had severe diabetes, was almost blind and required insulin for which he had no money then proceeded to show me the prescription document. I prayed to the Lord to give me clear guidance on whether he was genuine or it was a scam. I felt at peace and told him I could assist him however I will first buy him lunch. He thanked me and sat at a table behind me as he thought a foreigner would not want to sit and eat with him, however I immediately caught on and insisted he sit with me and we eat together. He ordered what I ordered and he said grace. He prayed to the Lord thanking him for the food and for my kindness.

The man revealed to me that he lived three hours from Antigua in a rural community and also needed money to travel home to his wife and two young daughters. I told him that we should finish lunch then I would give him sufficient funds to return to his family and for food. This was an act of faith on my part as I had limited funds. I also informed him I would pray he would be healed of his diabetes but required something from him first. I requested he give me his insulin prescription document.

Faith commands belief and there can be no room for unbelief. Had the man not given me the prescription document, I would have given him the funds to meet his personal needs however would not have prayed for his healing, because it would have been futile and a poor witness of my conviction in Christ Jesus.

Our conviction in the power and authority of the Lord Jesus Christ must be made evident at all times and must not be compromised as a testimony to the hearer.

Romans 1:16

For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ, for it is the power of God to salvation for everyone who believes, for the Jew first and also for the Greek.

The Lord was setting up an incredible scene and my role was to not interfere, to continue in obedience.

The man agreed although was somewhat hesitant so I had confirmation the prescription document was of value to him. Either his story was genuine and he required the funds urgently for the diabetes insulin, or he was also using the prescription story repeatedly to generate some income until he could no longer go without the insulin. Whatever the case may have been, the fear of the Lord was evident in the mans face as he concluded that it was no time to be playing games with God. He handed me the prescription document and I prayed for him that he would be healed of the diabetes and also that his sight would be restored. I asked if his sight had improved to which he responded, “No.” This did not unsettle me, as I know that God is always at work, if we do not lean on our own understanding and wait on Him.

Proverbs 3:5-6

Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding; In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct your paths.

Psalm 46:10

Be still, and know that I am God.

It is all about trusting God and His goodness, and not ours, for nobody is good.

Mark 10:18

So Jesus said to him, “Why do you call Me good? No one is good but One, that is, God.

We sat together and he complimented me on my Casio G-Shock watch on my wrist. The watch had great sentimental value to me due to it being one of a pair that I bought for my son and I. Particularly at this time, as I had not seen or spoken to my beloved son for months.

The Lord directed me to give the man my watch which I struggled with because I did not want to give it away. I eventually gave in and acted in obedience. I took the mans left hand and fashioned the watch on his wrist. He looked at me and began to weep profusely as he could not believe how much God was loving on him that day. He began begging for me to return to his village to introduce me to his family and the locals. I quickly prayed to the Lord and did not feel at peace to go with him. We parted ways and as I began walking back to my accommodation I asked the Lord, why He had not restored the mans sight at that time? The Lord responded;

“Peter, My ways are not your ways”.

[Isaiah 55:8]

The Lord began revealing to me that He desired to share the miraculous moment of healing alone with the man. That there would be a moment while the man was traveling home reflecting on his experience with God and I, when he would look down at his newly gifted watch and would be able to see and read the time, and at that moment, he would have suddenly realized his sight had been miraculously restored.

These circumstances would force the mans heart to focus his thanksgiving and praise toward God and not me, whom he began to idolize. Had the healing been immediate, the mans heart would have clutched at me, rather than the God who had visited him in love that day.

Most Christians would have walked away discouraged that day having not seen with their eyes the anticipated miraculous healing, and would have missed altogether the greater miracle of an incredible story-line written by the Lord Jesus Christ.

This man now had an incredible testimony of his encounter with God, and I certainly believe his family and entire community heard it. God more than likely reached an entire community through this one encounter. I do not need any evidence. I believe.

When you are confused, ask the Lord for clarity as He is faithful to answer and will never leave you in a state of confusion. You will learn from the experiences and your faith will grow to perform greater exploits as the Lord honours you in the ministry work.

James 1:5-8

If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of God, who gives to all liberally and without reproach, and it will be given to him. But let him ask in faith, with no doubting, for he who doubts is like a wave of the sea driven and tossed by the wind. For let not that man suppose that he will receive anything from the Lord; he is a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways.

Confusion and selfish ambition reside together therefore we must at all times seek the praise of God and cast aside all appetite for the praise of men.

John 12:43

For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.

James 3:16

For where envy and self-seeking exist, confusion and every evil thing are there.

Praying for a miracle healing is not straight forward as shown in the above testimony. It is also important to consider that the condition of a person's heart and their motivations will dictate the outcome. Many people simply do not want to be healed for various reasons, but in most cases, they do not want to be presented with any evidence that Jesus Christ is alive, which will force them to consider making necessary life changes according to His commands.

I will provide an example.

I met a young man in Guatemala with crippled legs who walked around on crutches with great difficulty. He was from a middle class family so he did not go without. I told him the Lord desired to heal him completely however he refused the prayer. I immediately prayed to the Lord asking why the man refused and the Lord showed me that this man was obsessed with electronic gaming and spent most of his days and nights playing them, and the activity was supported by his family out of sympathy because of his disability.

Had the man been healed of the disability and able to function normally, he would be expected to return to usual work duties and could no longer play the games that had taken his heart captive. This man's disability supported the life he desired and he was prepared to sacrifice walking and functioning in the real world, for running and firing a gun in a digitally simulated world.

The world is fallen and many have the character traits of Esau that will prevent them from entering into the promises.

Hebrews 12:16

Lest there be any fornicator or profane person like Esau, who for one morsel of food sold his birthright.

We must always exercise sensitivity and discernment when considering peoples infirmities and how they relate to Gods will.

In some cases, you will feel directed to do nothing because the Lord has the person where He needs them in that season and in other cases, it could be a Christian with a disability who the Lord uses effectively to reach a community that able bodied Christians cannot reach. God uses many methods and channels; it is a case by case basis. We must always proceed in meekness and fear so keep your 'prayer hands' in your pockets until you have the Lords counsel on the matter. The Lord does not delay and the answer will come quickly.

The Lord has graciously placed no further burden on us than to share the Gospel of His love and power of deliverance. If anyone is not interested, let your peace return to you and move on without causing a scene.

Matthew 10:14

And whoever will not receive you nor hear your words, when you depart from that house or city, shake off the dust from your feet.

I have provided the following scriptures and commentary which I believe are important considerations if you desire to be effective in prayer.

ACTING WITH AUTHORITY

James 5:16

Confess your trespasses to one another, and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The effective, fervent prayer of a righteous man avails much.

We must in the first instance be honest and humble before men and God of our weaknesses. There can be absolutely no room for pride otherwise our prayers will be hindered, God will resist them [1 Peter 5:5]. If we deal with our sins then our eyes will be filled with the light of understanding. The Lord will make clear His will and why some prayers are not answered how we anticipate [Isaiah 55:8-9]. There will be no confusion for the person stepping out in faith as I have shown with the testimonies provided above [James 1:5-8].

RECKLESS CONDUCT

Romans 14:20

Do not destroy the work of God for the sake of food [fleshly appetites]. All things indeed are pure, but it is evil for the man who eats [feeds the flesh] with offence.

Are you causing a brother or sister in the Lord and non-believers to stumble?

Carefully read and pray that you may understand the following scriptures.

Colossians 2:16

Let no one judge you [or judge no one] in food or in drink, or regarding a festival or a new moon or sabbaths.

Galatians 4:10-11

You observe days and months and seasons and years. I am afraid for you, lest I have laboured for you in vain.

1 Corinthians 6:12

All things are lawful for me [& others], but all things are not helpful. All things are lawful for me [& others], but I will not be brought under the power of any [or oppress others].

Not all things are edifying and others observing our conduct in the Lord can be led astray, particularly if they are non-believers of Christ or weak in the faith.

Matthew 18:6

But whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in Me to sin, it would be better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck, and he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

Placing the welfare of others before our own and carefully listening to the leading of the Holy Spirit is critical.

When we grieve the Holy Spirit, the peace we normally enjoy will depart as a warning that something is not right. When this happens, we must slow down and stop what we are doing and silence ourselves before the Lord, until we hear His correction. It is possible to no longer experience this symptom if the conscience has been seared from making peace with sin. This is extremely dangerous territory and severe chastisement from the Lord is imminent in the absence of genuine repentance.

If we say or do anything that offends a person because it was not done in love as commanded by the Scriptures, we must correct the offense by apologizing to the person and seek repentance. It is a humbling act, however it is an extremely powerful testimony because it is a rare occurrence in this modern age of pride. Many people have come to believe the Gospel of Christ through this simple act alone and it is also further evidence that God can make good of every situation if we obey the Scriptures.

Matthew 7:3-5

And why do you look at the speck in your brother's eye, but do not consider the plank in your own eye? Or how can you say to your brother, 'Let me remove the speck from your eye'; and look, a plank is in your own eye? Hypocrite! First remove the plank from your own eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck from your brother's eye.

STEALING FROM GOD

Romans 2:22

You who abhor idols, do you rob temples?

What is of value in the temple to the Lord? Is it not His inheritance in the Saints.

Ephesians 1:18

The eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that you may know what is the hope of His calling, what are the riches of the glory of His inheritance in the saints.

What is the temple? Is it not His people who possess the Holy Spirit including those being redeemed. Would you dare pluck from a heart the revelation of the Lord Jesus Christ and in doing so, steal from the Living God?

Do not provoke the Lord thy God!

Read the following very carefully.

Do not teach perverted doctrines for the purpose of fleecing a lamb to satisfy selfish ambitions, or to conceal or justify your sins. Teachers of perverted doctrines both in word or in deed will not go unpunished.

Jude 1:12-13

These are spots in your love feasts, while they feast with you without fear, -serving only themselves. They are clouds without water, carried about by the winds; late autumn trees without fruit, twice dead, pulled up by the roots; raging waves of the sea, foaming up their own shame; wandering stars for whom is reserved the blackness of darkness forever.

It is better to remain silent than speak that which is perverse and cursed.

If you are unsure, be silent. If you must speak, be sure.

James 3:1

My brethren, let not many of you become teachers, knowing that we shall receive a stricter judgement.

GODS DESIRE IS SALVATION

1 Timothy 2:4

God desires all men to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth.

We must understand that God's will is to bring everyone into the revelation of His great love toward man in Christ Jesus. All actions whether it be in word or in deed must lead to the saving of ones soul.

The miracles are the easy part for God. The challenge is how God distributes them and through whom.

What God requires is an obedient vessel who acknowledges His power & authority, and an understanding that His strategy is always focused toward leading a person into salvation.

Let us conclude with the words of Jesus Christ, which instructs us on all that is required.

John 5:30

I can of Myself do nothing. As I hear, I judge; and My judgement is righteous, because I do not seek My own will but the will of the Father who sent Me.

Judgements & Revivals

Acts 11:27-29

And in these days prophets came from Jerusalem to Antioch. Then one of them, named Agabus, stood up and showed by the Spirit that there was going to be a great famine throughout all the world, which also happened in the days of Claudius Caesar. Then the disciples, each according to his ability, determined to send relief to the brethren dwelling in Judea.

It is well recorded in the Bible and history that revivals are birthed from judgements.

There is no denying that Australia & many other nations have been sold into idolatry and the Church, broadly speaking, is leading the charge. Any attempt to raise the judgements of the Lord within the Church is met with alienation and dismissal as a dooms day prophet.

Jeremiah 8:7

My people do not know the judgement of the Lord.

Isaiah 50:1

Where is the certificate of your mother's divorce, Whom I have put away? Or which of My creditors is it to whom I have sold you? For your iniquities you have sold yourselves, And for your transgressions your mother has been put away.

Consider the following scriptures and judge for yourself whether the pot is boiling.

The nations have committed the gross error of casting the Gospel of Jesus Christ out of the minds and hearts of our youth, resulting in each generation becoming more depraved than the previous.

Psalm 2:1-5

Why do the nations rage, And the people plot a vain thing? The kings of the earth set themselves, And the rulers take counsel together, Against the Lord and against His Anointed, saying, "Let us break Their bonds in pieces And cast away Their cords from us." He who sits in the heavens shall laugh; The Lord shall hold them in derision. Then He shall speak to them in His wrath, And distress them in His deep displeasure.

Surely, you have identified the following traits in society and the youth of today?

Isaiah 3:4-5

"I will give children to be their princes, And babes shall rule over them. The people will be oppressed, Every one by another and every one by his neighbour; The child will be insolent toward the elder, And the base toward the honorable."

Calling that which is good evil and that which is evil good.

Isaiah 5:20

Woe to those who call evil good, and good evil; Who put darkness for light, and light for darkness; Who put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!

Here are some synonyms for the word 'Woe' as it seems to have lost its sting in this information obese age: Misery, destruction, sorrow, distress, wretchedness, sadness, unhappiness, heartache, heartbreak, desolation, despair, depression, gloom.

The majority of Christians in the nations are presently caught in deception.

James 1:22

Be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves.

2 Timothy 3:5

Having a form of godliness but denying its power. And from such people turn away!

2 Timothy 3:7

Always learning and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.

It should be understood that I am not claiming the Body of Christ is dysfunctional or dead. Not at all. In fact, it is as strong today as it was from the day it was founded, and will continue in strength until the Glorious day when it is caught up together with Christ forever.

1 Kings 19:18

“Yet I have reserved seven thousand in Israel, all whose knees have not bowed to Baal, and every mouth that has not kissed him.”

Matthew 16:18

And I also say to you that you are Peter, and on this rock I will build My church, and the gates of Hades shall not prevail against it.

What is limping though is the outward testimony of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. It is weak and compromised.

Judges 19:26-28

Then the woman came as the day was dawning, and fell down at the door of the man's house where her master was, till it was light. When her master arose in the morning, and opened the doors of the house and went out to go his way, there was his concubine, fallen at the door of the house with her hands on the threshold. And he said to her, "Get up and let us be going." But there was no answer. So the man lifted her onto the donkey; and the man got up and went to his place.

The apostle Paul accurately prophesied that a perilous age would come and this present age meets all criteria.

2 Timothy 3:1-4

But know this, that in the last days perilous times will come: For men will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, unloving, unforgiving, slanderers, without self-control, brutal, despisers of good, traitors, headstrong, haughty, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God.

There should be absolutely no need to provide further evidence that we are living in the days prophesied by Paul.

Luke 12:56

Hypocrites! You can discern the face of the sky and of the earth, but how is it you do not discern this time?

Jesus also warned.

Matthew 24:12

And because lawlessness will abound, the love of many will grow cold.

In light of these revelations, you might ask;

What work has the Lord been performing in this present age?

He has been setting apart to Himself a Holy remnant who have been tested through seasons of severe trials to lead a generation into the Light of the Gospel of Jesus Christ through a time of great upheaval.

Ezekiel 9:4

The Lord said to him, "Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and put a mark on the foreheads of the men who sigh and cry over all the abominations that are done within it.

Isaiah 59:19

When the enemy comes in like a flood, The Spirit of the Lord will lift up a standard against him.

The compromised church leaders of this present age have the characteristics described by Isaiah the prophet.

Isaiah 56:11-12

Yes, they are greedy dogs Which never have enough. And they are shepherds Who cannot understand; They all look to their own way, Every one for his own gain, From his own territory. "Come," one says, "I will bring wine, And we will fill ourselves with intoxicating drink; Tomorrow will be as today, And much more abundant."

The outcome for these irresponsible shepherds will be as shown in the book of Amos.

Amos 6:7

Therefore they shall now go captive as the first of the captives, And those who recline at banquets shall be removed.

The Lord Jesus Christ has made extremely clear to me that He cannot allow a generation to continue and pass away without a sufficient witness of His Gospel. Now, the Gospel is both heard and witnessed in deed, not just heard.

1 John 3:18

My little children, let us not love in word or in tongue, but in deed and in truth.

The coming revival in the nations will be witnessed in deed, and those practising lip-service will be muzzled and removed by the Lord.

Isaiah 29:13

These people draw near with their mouths And honour Me with their lips, But have removed their hearts far from Me, And their fear toward Me is taught by the commandment of men.

Do you hear and not do?

Do you preach and not act?

Do you act and cause others to stumble?

Do you boast but are disqualified?

We have reached the flash-point for judgement.

THE POT IS BOILING!

Understanding Dreams & Visions

Joel 2:28

And it shall come to pass afterward That I will pour out My Spirit on all flesh; Your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, Your old men shall dream dreams, Your young men shall see visions.

Why does the Lord give us dreams and visions? I have discovered in my experience, having received many over the past twenty years, they are given when the Lord desires to communicate important details to us and wants to ensure we do not miss His message.

A dream or vision may be given when the Lord desires to show you a future spouse, child, ministry or career to give you hope and keep you engaged in perseverance during a difficult season.

Jeremiah 29:11

For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, says the Lord, thoughts of peace and not of evil, to give you a future and a hope.

They are also given to warn us of present and future events and circumstances so that we may repent or prepare.

The message may be clear, while some are given with a hidden message requiring interpretation.

If they require interpretation, the purpose is generally due to it being given for; another person to interpret, a future season or until such time the Lord is able to trust us with the responsibility of carrying the burden of the message.

If you are considering doing further study on dreams & visions, be very careful with the books you read on the subject. My recommendation would be to study the examples in the Bible as they will give you a good basis on how God communicates through them. You must also always take them to the Lord in prayer like everything else.

A great example can be found in Genesis 41:15-32, where a disturbing vision was given to Pharaoh which unsettled him greatly as its meaning was hidden. This motivated Pharaoh to seek out its interpretation which nobody could provide except Joseph, whom God had given understanding to reveal the hidden message. This interaction between Pharaoh and Joseph was divinely arranged by God to appoint Joseph as ruler over Egypt to save a generation.

If the Lord does not reveal to you the interpretation of a dream or vision immediately, just let it go and forget about it. In due season, the Lord may or may not reveal it to you. Hold your peace. He is faithful.

Now that your knowledge of dreams & visions is at a basic level let us move on, or you should return to 'The Mission in Australia' if you are visiting from that chapter.

VISIONS OF JUDGEMENTS & REVIVALS

Daniel 10:7

And I, Daniel, alone saw the vision, for the men who were with me did not see the vision; but a great terror fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselves.

I have purposely embedded these visions within this section of the book without disclosing them under the 'Contents' page as a measure to deter readers from coming directly to reading the visions without gaining a basic understanding of what they are and the Lords purpose for giving them.

The Lord has forewarned me I will be ridiculed for sharing the visions in this book therefore I urge you to consider carefully the apostle Peter's warning and be in reverence, lest you be found to be mocking God, and find yourself in a season of anguished repentance during the tribulation events as a chastisement.

2 Peter 3:3-4

Knowing this first: that scoffers will come in the last days, walking according to their own lusts, and saying, "Where is the promise of His coming? For since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of creation."

What do I expect you to do with these visions?

I do not recommend you mention them outside the context of this book for obvious reasons.

These visions are for the mature in Christ who can digest solid Spiritual food. I have given them to you in hope you will prepare your heart in a season of peace. They are provided so you may, at the time when there is a fulfilment of these words, lead and comfort others through an extremely difficult season that will soon be upon us all.

Proverbs 24:10

If you faint in the day of adversity, your strength is small. I remind you of the following incident in scripture demonstrating the Lord does not desire His children reside in darkness regarding His plans.

Acts 11:27-29

And in these days prophets came from Jerusalem to Antioch. Then one of them, named Agabus, stood up and showed by the Spirit that there was going to be a great famine throughout all the world, which also happened in the days of Claudius Caesar. Then the disciples, each according to his ability, determined to send relief to the brethren dwelling in Judea.

Consider also the words of Jesus Christ if you find yourself struggling in accepting the unusual content of the visions.

John 3:12

If I have told you earthly things and you do not believe, how will you believe if I tell you heavenly things?

A Vision of a California Bus, Alligator & Monitor Lizard

I had this incredible vision of a California Bus, an Alligator and a Monitor Lizard and my understanding of the vision was hidden from me when I received it.

I saw a suspended concrete motorway that had water flooded close to the base of the road. Under the highway in the water was a yellow school bus tilted on a 45 degree angle with the front of the bus exposed out of the water. The front of the bus was pointing to my right. The destination sign read, 'California'.

Close to the bus I saw an alligator running on the sand toward a monitor lizard that was eating its eggs from a nest to my right. The monitor lizard realizing the alligator was charging toward it, looked at the alligator, then started frivolously throwing sand at it with its claws. The alligator was not deterred and continued to pursue the monitor lizard with determination at which point the monitor lizard began to flee.

The monitor lizard did not seem to be concerned by the threat on its life and stopped in the sand again with a casual attitude. The alligator continued with the pursuit so the monitor lizard fled again. Up ahead was a puddle of water which the monitor lizard jumped into and rested for a moment.

The alligator kept chasing and when the monitor lizard jumped out of the puddle thinking it was safe from danger, the alligator was there waiting and swallowed it entirely. The vision ended.

Many months later I had a vision of Indonesia which would be the catalyst for the Lord revealing the interpretation of the vision of the California Bus, Alligator and Monitor Lizard.

A Vision of Indonesia

I was in a house in Indonesia [revealed to my spirit man it was Indonesia]. The people were of Asian appearance. I heard a commotion outside and went to investigate and noticed the house was surrounded by water that had flooded the entire region. The locals were discussing amongst themselves that many small tsunamis had flooded the region. In the water just in front of me was a body bag and in it was a young boy who was dead. The vision ended.

When I awoke the Lord spoke to me clearly the following words;

“Sequence of Events”

The Lord also began revealing to me He was ready to give me the interpretation for the vision of the California Bus, Alligator and Monitor Lizard.

I immediately began praying and requested the interpretation. The Lord directed me to research the regions of the world where alligator and monitor lizards are native and I was surprised with what I learned.

Alligators are native to the southeast United States of America with the majority inhabiting Florida and Louisiana. They are also native to China however extremely endangered therefore I concluded this was irrelevant for the purposes of the vision.

Monitor lizards are native to Africa, Asia, and Oceania.

The Sequence of Events concerning the Visions

First Catastrophe: Yellow Bus 'California'

An earthquake of unimaginable scale will fracture the west coast of the United States of America and the coast of California will tilt into the sea on a steep angle. A tsunami will consequently hit the west coast causing mass flooding.

Second Catastrophe: Alligator Pursuit

At the same time or following the Californian catastrophe, the south east United States of America will be devastated by immense tsunamis and flooding.

Third Catastrophe: Frivolous Monitor Lizard

The regions of Africa, Asia, and Oceania will receive reports of the catastrophes in the United States of America [the monitor lizard consuming the alligators eggs] however will frivolously dismiss the catastrophes as being localized to those regions.

The puddle the monitor lizard had rested in for a time, relates to the 'Vision of Indonesia' showing these regions will experience flooding from smaller tsunamis, however again, will dismiss them as not being related to the USA events, or believing the worst of the catastrophes have passed.

After some time, these regions will believe they are safe however will exit the minor tsunami and flooding catastrophes [the puddle of water] only to be caught and consumed by similar nation changing catastrophic tsunamis.

The most severe based on what the Lord has shown will be a tsunami of unimaginable scale hitting Sydney Australia as previously mentioned.

Vision of Landslide Tsunami & Government Favour

I have had numerous visions of tsunamis. Included in this book are those detailing clearly the events that are soon approaching. Some the Lord forced me to experience actual death where I drowned during the vision and yes, it felt as though I was actually dying and calling out to the Lord to take my spirit.

I was in an outdoor bar and suddenly everybody started running in terror and I joined the stampede not knowing what had happened. I ran toward a flight of stairs that led to a sports bar located on a lower level. This bar was empty and I saw a TV screen on the back wall playing an urgent news broadcast.

The news was showing a cartoon simulation of a landslide falling into the sea from a mountain creating a tsunami. The simulation was red and green in colour. I immediately turned around and began running up the same stairs and I witnessed law enforcement personnel running down toward the sports bar. As I was climbing the stairs I was grasping with my hands a chain that was assisting me with my ascent that had law enforcement utility tools & resources attached to it. The vision ended.

The vision is extraordinary yes? As always, the vision has an insightful message.

The Interpretation of the Vision

The interpretation is that a landslide generated tsunami of tremendous scale will hit the southeast coast of Australia. Landslide tsunamis are also scientifically known to be the most devastating of all tsunami generated events.

The animation of the landslide tsunami on the TV screen shows the event will happen suddenly and originate from an unseen region off the coast of Australia that media will have no footage to broadcast hence resorting to animations. The people running in terror also evidences the suddenness of the catastrophe. The vision of the monitor lizard being captured and consumed by the alligator also shows the suddenness of the event.

The law enforcement utility chain shows there will be government funds and favour directed to ministers of the Lord during this time of great distress. These ministers will be the only group who can demonstrate to the government, they are providing stability through a message of peace and hope to the unsettled and terrified inhabitants.

In this season, there will be an abundant outpouring of the Holy Spirit and revivals will spring up in many nations. There will be immense favour in funding and permission for Christian meetings to be held in public arenas and authorized travel into regions that will be restricted to the average civilian.

Vision of Universities & The Peak Size of the Tsunami

In this vision, the Lord revealed to me the actual height of the tsunami and the necessity for His intervention before the nations are sold entirely into darkness.

I was at an unknown university and there was an incredible amount of fornication and drunken revelry going on. I was walking back and forth in the university and debauchery was everywhere. I felt the need to go to the bathroom to urinate and when I went to step toward the toilet as my foot touched the ground there began to develop under my foot a large whirlpool of urine that created a hole that spiraled into the belly of the earth and I stepped back in great fear and disgust.

I ran away from the filth of that place and while running, I heard behind me young men shouting a number of times, “The wave is Pico 18 metres!” The vision ended.

The Interpretation of the Vision

Pico is Spanish for 'Peak' therefore the Lord was showing the tsunami will be a staggering height of 18 metres [60 feet]. It has not been revealed to me why the Lord chose to use 'Pico' rather than 'Peak' to communicate the peak height of the tsunami. Perhaps I will be in Guatemala once again at the time of the event. Only God knows. I have provided what I witnessed in the vision. Nothing more, nothing less.

Regarding the University part of the vision, we must consider that unlike former generations, the majority of youth are processed through the University education streams and are forced to be exposed to the toxic and Godless cultures of those environments.

Our youth are being processed through a machine of extreme secularism and the Godless ideals are grinding them into sausages to feed hell's insatiable appetite for souls. It is a similarity to ancient child sacrifice however it is a spiritual death and the Lord's heart is bleeding for this great loss.

The Words of Judgements in this Book

I have shared as much detail concerning the judgements as the Holy Spirit will permit and testify that the contents of this book are true.

It is a great burden to carry and proclaim the words of these prophecies and to persevere in this kind of ministry as I have been mocked and considered unbalanced in mind for many years.

The generation of Jeremiah the prophet ridiculed and persecuted harshly that prophet for the word of the Lord.

The outcome for Jeremiah and the poor who were oppressed was they escaped being taken away captive and inherited the wealth of the wicked. Please consider that the poor did not suffer in poverty during that evil age because they were foolish or naive. They were poor because they refused to partake in the evil of that day and prepared their hearts for the days of judgement prophesied by Jeremiah.

The righteous know the judgement of the Lord, that at a flash-point within every generation, God harvests the earth and re-balances the scales of justice according to His righteousness.

Rather frightening when you consider that God has a sickle and swipes it over the earth from time to time. God swiped His sickle over Guatemala three months after we ministered there which is an irrefutable fact.

The great stubbornness of the king of Jeremiah's generation caused his eyes to be gouged out [blinded] and the shame of his defeat was paraded around the courts of the enemy.

Pray that you do not mock and ignore the words of this testimony resulting in spiritual blindness and the shame of your nakedness being exposed.

The Lord is merciful in revealing His plans to His church.

I thank Him greatly for extending such grace to us to forewarn of His plans that we may prepare our hearts and lead others into the knowledge and salvation power of the Lord Jesus Christ.

The Heavens & Time

2 Corinthians 12:2-4

I know a man in Christ who was caught up to the third heaven.

In June of 2019 the Lord directed me to travel by car to a city 1,000 kilometers away and I had only enough money for fuel to get there. Another mission requiring I step out in faith.

I went in obedience and when I arrived I had to park the car as I had no money, fuel or food and slept in my car for days. The Lord eventually sent assistance through a faithful Australian evangelist who recognized my calling, on the basis of very little evidence, and showed me an incredible amount of kindness and support.

While sleeping in my car one night in the midst of this mission, which was testing my patience once again, I had an incredible experience.

I found myself leaving the world from where I was located in Australia; similar to zooming out in Google Earth. As I was traveling, I could see only what I can describe as the 'Heavens & Time'. It was as though I was viewing all of creation in the Heavens and the earth and the various ages that have passed. I was not shown Angels or Heaven itself. The experience was more incredible than you can imagine.

While this was going on I could hear the Lord singing an anthem that kept looping over and over again. I have no words to describe the singing and what I experienced. The song lyrics were:

I am the Lord, and I do not change,
I do what I want, and I do what it takes.

I found myself pleading with the Lord to show me His Glory. I kept requesting this of Him as there was an inner appetite that desired to see His Glory. I do not know why I asked this as it was not something that came to mind. It is something you find yourself asking of Him when He draws you this close to His presence in His Heavenly habitation.

He did not show me His Glory, but settled my heart by revealing to me that someday I will see it, and to look forward to it. As I continued traveling He began to place me in the pavilion of a building. I cannot say that I was unhappy to be leaving the experience, because there is no unhappiness when you are in that spiritual state, but I did not desire to leave. I wanted to stay and not return to my life on earth.

I woke up immediately and had exceedingly great joy. All I could say to the Lord was;

“That was incredible Lord but please do not let me forget that song!
Please let me remember it!”

I have had many dreams and visions in the Lord, more than I can count, although they have always been related to spiritual warfare or the Lords plans. I have requested for twenty years that the Lord give me a Heaven visit or a similar experience, which He has now provided so I am thankful for an answer to prayer.

I believe the Lord desired to reward and comfort me for stepping out in faith all these years and give me a deeper revelation of His absolute control over the past, present and future.

There are difficult times approaching in the near future Saints which will test my faith, and the faith of many.

Luke 21:26

Men’s hearts failing them from fear and the expectation of those things which are coming on the earth, for the powers of the heavens will be shaken.

You can believe with false hope the words of the prophecies contained in this book are untrue or for a future generation, or you can arise and shine for the Light has come.

Isaiah 60:1

Arise, shine; For your light has come! And the glory of the Lord is risen upon you.

Final Remarks

Test the words of this book in prayer and fasting because the hour is late and the events that are coming will impact everyone in one way or another.

Isaiah 26:9

For when Your judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness.

Remember the words the Lord sang to me while showing me His sovereignty over the Heavens and time.

I am the Lord, and I do not change,
I do what I want, and I do what it takes.

The living God who speaks in this manner has the power to accomplish what He pleases so let us fear & obey Him with minimal resistance.

God bless the Saints who love not the world but whose hope is in the love and grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and await eagerly His return. So be it Lord. Come quickly!
